2010 Gift Certificate Form

What Kind of Gift Certificate Do You Want?:

1. Monetary Certificate: Give any dollar amount that can be used at Wild Food Adventures for any purpose. Coupons are not redeemable for cash, only products and services. They are transferable to other persons.
2. Workshop Certificate: A $25 gift certificate gives the giftee the choice of any day workshop in 2010. A $30 certificate excludes them from having to pay an on-site car pooling fee, should they car pool. Multiply that by as many workshops as you want to provide. You can also choose to specify which workshop you want them to take, thereby paying the exact amount of that workshop. They are transferable to other persons.

Details & Options:

Tell us, by marking the appropriate boxes, exactly what you are paying for.

Are you  Making your own personal certificate or  Do you want us to send a standard one?

If you want a standard certificate,  Do you want it sent to you, or  To the recipient?

Is the certificate for  A specific workshop (pay the amount of the workshop), or  Any workshop of their choosing?

If providing them a choice:  Is it for a workshop alone ($25/event/person), or  Does it include the carpool fee ($30/event/person)?

Specify any other Directions: _____

If you are making your own certificate make sure you include the following information with your gift:

Recipients need to contact us at least two weeks in advance of the event they want to attend to tell us they plan to attend.

This allows us to reserve them a spot. If they contact us late and a workshop is full, they will have to choose another.

Recipients do not have to surrender or show us certificates, since we have both you and them on file for verification.
